Newsletter November 2013

Just to let you know we are back in Settle.

1. NCHRG Accounts

Bank Balance at 2013 £9-60

Skipton Building Society A/C Balance at 2013 £2,460-23

2. The North Craven Historical Research Group deposited a collection of Memorabilia pertaining to the late Settle Rural District Council belonging to Mr. Edwin Butt, the last Clerk to the Council with the NYCC Archive at Northallerton. We have now received confirmation from Northallerton that the records have been processed and are deposited under the initials ZZM. The material is available for viewing on the group computer and will be made available on the internet from the NCHRG Website in due course.

3. Sheila Gordon has finished transcribing the Austwick Manor Court Baron 1787-1839 - this can be seen on the group computer and will be made available on the internet from the NCHRG Website in due course. We understand that Mike Pearson from Austwick Hall is transcribing an earlier part of this record and we will be supplied with a copy for the archive in due course.

4. Main projects at Procter House are updating our web server, processing miscellaneous items from the Stan Laurence archive, writing up and presenting the group's projects viz Gig Scar, Wetlands survey, Winskill survey.

5. We understand that the YD Millenium Group have been given some funding in their bid for Lottery money for North Craven Heritage Groups.

6. David Johnson led two very successful digs in Crummackdale this year and a report can be seen on the IAG web site.

7. Mary & Mike Slater have been photographing dated doorheads around the Dales and these can be seen on the NCHT website.

Do call in for a chat when you are passing the door and keep us up to date with what you are doing, we need to update our membership and project list..

Best wishes,
Rita & Phil
